All about Alissa:

Alissa has been fascinated with the English language since elementary school. She enjoys reading books in English with romance novels being her favorite genre. Stemming from a diverse background, with roots in Poland and Tunisia, yet residing in Germany, she has an appreciation for different cultures and perspectives. She celebrates her multicultural heritage by cooking international dishes and having global conversations. In her free time, she enjoys spending time with friends. They go shopping or watch movies together. She also enjoys watching motor sports (especially Formula 1) and baking. Baking cookies and muffins are her specialty. She is known for her outgoing and happy personality, in addition to her collection of high heels. Become the bridge between cultures and apply to host Alissa today!
