All about Fiona:

Fiona is described as responsible, organized, and helpful. For almost a year she has been working a job in a tea room for pocket money and help finance her trip to the U.S. She would like to join the Belgian Army and then go into civil aviation. She and feels the experience in the U.S. will allow her to meet new people and learn the language. She is close knit with her parents and twin sister, but she also has a close relationship with her grandparents. She loves sports, cooking/baking, meeting with friends, traveling, and taking time for herself. She is a good student in school and loves chemistry and biology, but also Spanish and English. Fiona has Italian roots as her parents are both Italian. Become the bridge between cultures and apply to host Fiona!
