All about Kate:

Kate has always shown a great interest in science. She has a goal set to become a doctor and make an impact on the world by alleviating suffering. She dreams of becoming a doctor on one of NASA's missions and exploring outer space. She recently started training for soccer, but has played basketball for 10 years. The family enjoys going out together to swim, take a walk, skate or play basketball or soccer. In her free time she likes to read novels, especially adventure, fantasy, or science fiction. She is interested in technology and enjoys programming, especially robotics, games, and app development. She even created her own website. She has a pet chameleon named Fidelia.
