All about Elise:

Elise is cheerful, independent, and active. She considers herself an optimistic person and tries to find the positive in things. She gets along with children and pets really well and can be very sociable.

Her passion is rugby but she is open to try other sports or cheer leading while on program. She also loves to travel and learn about different cultures.

Experiencing prom and going to football games is exciting for her and can't wait to bring an unforgettable experience to her new host family.
