All about Daniel:

Daniel considers himself adaptable, funny, and sporty. He loves basketball and plays small forward on his team. He was also chosen as the team captain. He hopes to join a team while on program but is also interested in trying other sports such as American football or baseball.

He is curious and likes to learn new things, but also likes a good competition.

Daniel has also been learning to cook some popular Spanish dishes and can't wait to cook for his new host family.
